Dear Jeannette:

In response to your letter of September 12, I provide the following information about the Clara Parsons Trust so that you might provide it to DHHS:

1. As noted in Attorney Molly Lynch's letter to you of August 7, the account of the Clara Parsons Trust is not a confidential document. As guardian of [redacted], you received a copy of the account when we filed it with the court. It should be in your file.
2. As shown on the account, the Trustees of the Clara Parsons Trust are Nathaniel Bowditch of Kennett Square, PA and William Upton of Concord, NH. However, I am counsel for them, and request that you and DHHS not contact them directly.
3. [redacted] is not a beneficiary of any of the other trusts created in the Will of Robert [redacted] that are currently in existence. I have no knowledge of any other trusts of which [redacted] might be a beneficiary, so have no knowledge of whether any others might have been converted to a unitrust.

It is unfortunate that this battle between [redacted] and DHHS continues to wage. As I have told you, and I have told Atty. Lynch (and her predecessor, Atty. Jennifer Jones), [redacted] is one of many remainder beneficiaries who may benefit from the Clara Parsons trust following Clara's death. [redacted] has no present interest in the trust at all, and if she does not survive Clara, she will have no future interest in the trust either. I enclose a copy of my letter of August 19, 2013 to Atty. Jennifer Jones of DHHS in which I enclosed a copy of the will of Robert [redacted] and summarized [redacted] interest in the trusts created in the will. I am not enclosing another copy of the will, since you and DHHS received the copy in the original mailing.

I hope that you and DHHS can put this matter to rest. It is not fair to Clara Parsons or other potential beneficiaries of the trust created for her lifetime benefit by Robert _____ to keep incurring charges for going over the same information time and time again.

Yours truly,

Maureen C. Dwyer
