

1 the DPOA's.

2 So these have since -- when it was brought to my 3 attention that apparently this is -- but I don't -- I don't do
4 these -- these type of things. There was just kind of, at the 5 time, we were stuck and needed something. I was certainly not 6 aware that this was the wrong form and that it was done.

7 THE COURT: Another point is, Judge Kelly had asked
8 you to provide him with a list of all cases in which you
9 were -- presently serve as guardian. This is a September 30,
10 2014 letter. For each, please provide the following
11 information: name of ward, date of appointment, docket number, 12 authority -- meaning person estate -- person or (sic) and 13 estate, and the date you last personally visited your ward. If 14 you have been removed, provide us with the name and the docket
15 number.

16 What you provided, and I think I counted them, comes 17 to like forty -- no, forty-two certificates of appointment
18 relating to professional needs trusts and guardianships.
19 Several of them -- well, some of them -- none of them say what 20 year the visit was. It just has the date and a month and a 21 day.

22 In fact, one -- I'm looking at number 26, and yours
23 aren't numbered so -- but it's one involving . . . It
24 shows that you were appointed May 22, 2013, and the last visit
25 was September 30. That was the same day as the letter that

1 Judge Kelly wrote. I'm not understanding what years these 2 were.

3 THE WITNESS: It all would have been that same year
4 because I visit people, well, now monthly. But at the time, it
5 was, you know, at least quarterly or bimonthly.

6 THE COURT: Some of them don't have any date at all.
7 It just says last visit, colon, no date,
8 (phonetic). , no date at all.

9 And I'm just wondering why you didn't put the year
10 down?

11 THE WITNESS: I don't -- I don't know, Your -- this 12 goes back to, what, 2014? I honestly can't explain because I'm 13 not looking at it, and I don't have my --

23 of these entries -- well, the ones that aren't -- have no
